MORE ON JEREMIAH "JERRY" COLEMAN

Jeremiah "Jerry" was a farmer before and after the Civil War in addition to owning a store with Pete Rountree [of Emanuel County]. To answer the Confederate call to arms, Jerry enlisted in Co. B, 2nd Battalion, Cavalry on Sep 18, 1862 at Camp Rose, Ga. --- When he returned to Emanuel Co. after the Civil War, he, as did most of his friends, started from scratch. The store had been lost, he and Pete owed a bundle to Charleston, SC merchants, his horse died and he owed $700, a sizeable sum at that time. He and Pete Rountree worked out a settlement with the merchants for their debts. Jerry bought a pony from John Overstreet, made ten bales of cotton and used the proceeds to pay on a farm.

The home place was later called, "The Sycamores" ---. From: (The COLEMANAC—1750 – 1976, page 179, by Arthur Clinton Coleman)

Notes for MOZELLE GAY:

Mozelle Gay was my great-aunt. She was born on 12-23-1859. d 4-28-1945, and is buried in the Atkinson-Gay Cemetery in Emanuel Co Ga. Her husband was Perry B Atkinson. That is all I have from family notes, but I do have some further information on their descendants that I got from the Emanuel Co Ga genweb site.

Mozelle was the eldest of nine children of Calvin Gay b 5-3-1835, and Elizabeth Anderson b 12-30-1840, Emanuel Co Ga. Calvin's parents were Wiley Gay b 1810 and Betsy Jemina Bowen b 1815, Tattnall Co Ga. Elizabeth's parents were Arelzaman Anderson and Mary Marsh, both born 1820, Emanuel Co Ga.

My grandmother was the youngest child, Sally Gay, who married Milledge Chestnut Thompson. Will be happy to share more information. Carol Miller
